EDUCATION EXCHANGE & PORTLAND PREMIERE

BETTER LIVING SHOW
PORTLAND EXPO D202-D204

SAT. MARCH 24th
TIME: 5:30-6:30PM
*PREMIERE:6-9:30PM

WHAT TO EXPECT:

The Education Exchange is a networking opportunity within the Portland Film Premiere specifically for formal and informal educators to connect and discuss sustainability education. At a roundtable type discussion, educators will learn about local organizations and Green Living Project's free educational resources, as well as share experiences, resources and questions. This casual networking session is intended to connect educators to local resources and opportunities within their community. After the discussion, stick around for free food, drinks and sustainability films at the Portland Film Premiere!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

K-12 teachers, college educators, non-formal educators, local environmental organizations, parents, and anyone interested in sharing or learning more about sustainability education.

RSVP for the Education Exchange, and get in to Education Exchange & Premiere for the special educator pricing, $10 per ticket! RSVP: Laura@greenlivingproject.com
